TELEGRAMS
(via Galveston.)

St. Petersburg, 23d.—The Directors of railways have held a meeting in St.
Petersburg, at which they discussed the steps to be taken for military mobilization and rapid carrying of troops to any point, in case of necessity.

The medical students at Kieff have received orders to join the Sanitary Corps of the Russian army.

Paris, 22d.—The military expedition sent by the French Government against the Somos tribes in the French Sudan, had a fight on the 11th inst. with the natives, who outnumbered the expeditionary forces. After a hot fire, the natives were routed and fled. The French lost 4 killed and 30 wounded; on the natives' side 300 killed and many wounded.

Madrid, 22d.—It has been discovered that the organization of the Anarchist movement in the province of Malaga is more serious than was supposed.
The ramifications of the conspiracy extend to San Fernando, where it is feared disorders at Jerez will be repeated. The troops in those places are confined to barracks, to be ready for any attack.

Washington, 22d.—Judge Bradley, member of the Supreme Court, is dead.

London, 22d.—Twelve thousand shipwrights at Sunderland have struck, owing to wages being reduced.

Rome, 23d.—The Pope has held a long conference with Cardinal Rampolla and Monsignor Moceni and Porcino about the former's resignation and the vacancy in the Prefecture of the Propaganda Fide.

St. Petersburg, 23d.—Two train laden with petroleum collided at Tiflis station, and took fire. Several guards were killed in the accident.

Paris, 23d.—A fatal accident is announced in the valley near Dieppe.
The summit of a hill crumbled suddenly and crushed several houses at its foot.
Two persons were killed and twenty injured.

Indianapolis, 23d.—The National Institute of Surgery has been destroyed by fire. Nineteen persons were burned alive, and thirty injured. It is feared there are other victims, as many persons were in the building.

Moscow, 23d.—Whist service was being celebrated in the church at Slo-bodskoi the roof fell, and crushed fifty people, between killed and injured.

Dymouth, 23d.—The mail steamer Gratavia, from Wellington and Rio Janeiro, has arrived here, having had the voyage six cases of yellow fever onboard, two of them fatal.

Rome, 23d.—Premier Rudini announced today in the Chamber that there are no negotiations going on with France for a commercial treaty.

Paris, 23d.—Minister Ribot has announced that the new minimum tariff will come into force on February 1st.
Spain and other countries have been asked to accept it.

London, 23d.—The step taken by Lord Salisbury in annulling the appointment of Morier as Ambassador to Rome and keeping him in St. Petersburg is the subject of much comment. It is said to be due to England joining Germany and Italy in an attempt to persuade the Czar to abandon the French alliance and join England in leaving France isolated.

Madrid, 23d.—It is rumored in many circles that the republicans are again agitating to overthrow the monarchy.

London, 23d.—The Marquis of Lorne has been named Governor of Windsor Castle.

Rome, 23d.—An earthquake was felt here last night and caused a great panic in the city.

New York, 23d.—Telegrams from London say that the Emperor William's delightful conduct in reference to the fate of Clarence has caused a very bad impression in English Court circles.

In the afternoon the Emperor went out to shoot, although he had been informed of the Prince's dangerous condition.

Philadelphia, 23d.—The Government has taken the steamer Ohio as a transport.

RUSSIAN PREPARATIONS.
The telegrams which we publish this morning from St. Petersburg show that the Czar is making hasty preparations for war. He is impelled to this course by one of two reasons; either that he wishes to turn away attention from the revue of famine in his dominions, or that he anticipates some sudden attack from Germany on account of his recent alliance with France.

But, be his motive what it may, the next Russian war is likely to prove a fatal to his dynasty as the Franco-German campaign was to the house of Bonaparte in 1871.

The empire of the White Czar is an anachronism in a world of Europe, in the closing years of the 19th century. The lash of the Cossack is the formula of government. This may answer in ordinary times, but when a great calamity occurs, like the present famine, the people are abandoned to their own resources and allowed to die in thousands and tens of thousands.

The accounts that reach us are of the most heart-rending description. Yet this is the moment chosen to direct all the energies of the Government to warlike preparation.

Instead of Mr. Giers sending all the State railways for the purpose of conveying food to those districts where famine is sweeping off the population, he has convened the managers of the various lines to arrange for the transport of guns, military stores and the like.

We think that we can already see the hand writing on the wall that the empire is taken away from the Offro, No man Jadeite Tiles will give anything, lace, ribbons, curtains, festoons, etc.

The Emperor Nicholas fled the name of Minsk; his son banished Catholic bishops to Siberia, and his grandson's reign is remarkable for wholesale massacres of Jews.

The world is tired of such a line of despots.

INTERVENTION FOR SANTA FE.
Although the National Government has ordered federal intervention in the Province of Mendoza there is much more urgent need of such measures as regards that of San Juan. Murder and robbery have become so common in the latter province that it would seem as if all the demons of Hell were let loose there.

In the worst days of California crime was not so rampant. Yet the authorities do nothing. In fact, if the Prensa telegrams be correct the police are implicated in the robberies and murders that are going on.

It would seem as if the Republic were dissolving into chaos, since we read of a similar state of things in Corrientes.
One of the Government officials was shot last week at Saladas in the act of rolling the house of an estanciero named Rivas. This is really a terrible state of things, which calls for prompt and effective remedy.

If the Governor of Santa Fe and Corrientes are unable to correct such abuses public indignation will pronounce itself in some way and not to the benefit of the Government to vindicate law and order, since it is the first duty of a government to protect life and property. The people naturally look to the President of the Republic, in the matter of such executive power is concentrated, and if Pres. Pellegrini were to allow these conditions to continue in Santa Fe and Corrientes there would be an indelible stain on his administration.

We do not pretend to suggest how His Excellency is to act in the matter.
If the Constitution does not directly provide a remedy his own instincts of justice and humanity will readily find a way to check this carnival of crime.

THE SENTENCE ON SMITHERS.
Public opinion was divided in Buenos Ayres as to the probable result of the criminal proceedings against the late manager of the English Bank of the River Plate, but even those who expected that the jury would find him guilty had no idea that the sentence passed on him would be so heavy. Four years of imprisonment with hard labor is a punishment the magnitude of which the Government regarded the case of one of its extraordinary depravity.

There must have been something far more criminal which came to light on the trial than the fraud which was the subject of the case. The jury's verdict must have been based on the evidence presented to them. The sentence passed on him was not excessive.

flames had full possession of the building. A southerly breeze was blowing at the time, and in less than half an hour after the alarm was given the flames had spread to No. 5, which was also a two-story building, the upper being occupied by Don Manuel Senador and family and the lower by three shops.
From No. 5 the flames spread to No. 3

Very little was saved out of No. 7, and beyond that little was considerably damaged. The occupiers of other buildings were more fortunate in this respect, having had considerably more time at their disposal for salvage purposes.
